SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Feinberg Chosen.

At Tuesday night's meeting of the Elks' lodge further arrangements were made for initiations and a social session Tuesday night, February 22. It was decided to repeat the second part of the initiation ceremonies—old-time stuff—and Dr. John S. Stone was again made chairman of the degree team with all past officers of the lodge his assistants. Frank Feinberg was chosen chairman of the social session. The entertainment committee is preparing a fine amusement program for the occasion. The class will be large and the affair promises to be a stirring success.

Easter Star Meets.

Queen Esther Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a banquet and meeting in the Masonic temple Thursday evening. The banquet will be served at 6:30 o'clock and the business meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock. A number of visiting ladies from Grafton and West Union are expected to attend.

Mothers Meet.

The Clarksburg Mothers Club met with Mrs. J. S. Smith Tuesday afternoon. There was a gratifying attendance of interested women. The president laid special stress on the fact that the club meetings are for all women. Any woman, whether a member or not, is welcomed and she may invite and take any who will go to these meetings. There is great need of the truths and teachings of this club being spread abroad and cooperation will do it. Devotional services by Mrs. W. C. Taylor was conducted in her usual pleasing manner. The program was taken up and handled in a very clever manner by Mrs. Mary Wilbur, every woman during the social hour continuing the discussion.

The next meeting will be February 22, with Mrs. B. A. Mann, on Locust street. The subject will be "Amusements."

Knights to Entertain.

Clarksburg Council, No. 872, Knights of Columbus, will have an open house entertainment in the council rooms on West Pike street from 8 to 11:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The council is conducting a membership campaign and this entertainment is given in honor of prospective new members. The program for the evening is in charge of Frank L. McGraw, lecturer of the council, who promises to give the council members and guests one of the best entertainments of the year. John A. Flaherty and the entertainment committee is also working with Mr. McGraw. A musical program, good speaking and an elaborate luncheon will feature the evening's entertainment.

Pianist Coming.

The announcement of the engagement of Frederick Morley the distinguished English pianist, who will play Friday evening, February 3, in the auditorium of the Masonic temple under the auspices of the Marcato Music Club, carries with it more than the usual amount of interest and pleasant anticipation, inasmuch as Mr. Morley has been acclaimed by the critics as one of the most brilliant English pianists who has visited America during the last decade. Although Mr. Morley's earlier successes were made in Australia and England, it remained for Berlin, Munich and Vienna to stamp him as one of the world's great concert pianists. Besides a dazzling technique, Mr. Morley is said to possess an astonishing insight into the under meaning of the composer, and a broad grasp of the intellectual and emotional phases of the great works in piano literature.

Mr. Morley has had the distinction of playing repeatedly with many of the world's great symphony orchestras, and to him fell the honor of reintroducing Dohnanyi's concerto in London with the London symphony orchestra, under the conductorship of Sir Henry Wood. Mr. Morley's first general tour of America is regarded as one of the most brilliantly successful in recent years.

A full program for the Morley recital will be announced in a few days. Charles C. Washburn, the well known American baritone, who will appear with Frederick Morley, two years ago in Boston was selected to present before the leading musical club of the Hub city a program of songs of the Southland. Many American singers had, up to that time, attempted to interpret in Boston songs of the South, but it was not until Charles Washburn's appearance in Boston that a vogue was started for music of this type in that city. Mr. Washburn was born on a plantation in Alabama and has spent much time in collecting the songs which he uses on his programs.

It is said that after Sidney Homer, the composer, had heard Mr. Washburn sing his "Uncle Rome" he declared that it had never been properly sung before.

Tickets for the recital can be obtained from any member of the Marcato Club.

Mrs. Wilson Entertains. Complimentary to Miss Freda Henking, of San Diego, Calif., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. William L. Geppert, Mrs. Elwood M. Wilson entertained a number of her friends at cards from 3 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in her home on West Main street.

Crimson carnations and smilax were obtained in the floral decorations and twelve tables were pleasingly arranged for progressive euchre. At 5 o'clock a salad course with ices and coffee were served at small tables. Covers were laid for fifty guests.

Program for Teachers.

The subjoined program is out for the teachers of Coal district, who will meet at Adamston, Saturday, February 12. This meeting will close the study of the reading circle work as prescribed for Coal district teachers. The subjects are taken from Betts' and Hall's "Better Rural Schools."

"The Rural High School"—C. M. Bailey.
"Building and Equipment"—R. H. Carder.
"The Supervision of Rural Schools"—M. D. Teter.
"Schools and Community"—S. R. Hannah.
"The One-room School"—Miss Dessie Wines.
"School Hygiene"—R. M. Fisher.
"Personal Hygiene"—A. R. White.
"The Play-ground"—W. R. Wolvertson.
"The Outlook for Rural Education"—J. W. Reaser.
"The Promising Future"—Columbus Ash.
"Present Opportunities"—A. C. Pratt.

"Things of Value Learned in the Study of 'Better Rural Schools,'"—Mrs. L. Wayman Ogden.

Club is Entertained.

The Wednesday Three Table Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. David B. Carper from 3 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in her home on North Sixth street.

Upon the arrival of the guests ices and confections were served and later three tables were in play for auction bridge.

The out of town visitors included in the list were Miss Katherine Burns, of Huntington; and Miss Powell, of Parkersburg.

To Entertain.

Mrs. Philip P. Steptoe will entertain informally a few of the unmarried men and girls Wednesday evening at cards to meet Miss Ellen Powell, of Parkersburg. Progressive bridge will be the evening's entertainment.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Cleaning White Laces.

Delicate laces which have become soiled may be cleaned beautifully by squeezing them through skimmed milk to which a little bluing has been added. They come out of their bath looking like new and are just the right stiffness when stretched and dried, or dried and ironed between cloths over a Turkish towel pad.

Mutton Broth.

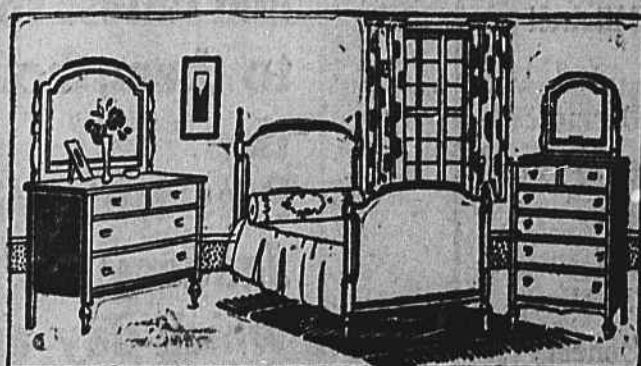

Take three pounds neck of mutton, cut into pieces and remove fat; cover with two quarts of cold water, heat gradually and boil slowly until reduced one-half; strain, add one and one-half tablespoons rice and cook until tender; season with salt and pepper; remove every particle of fat that may rise to the surface; prepare the day before using, thus allowing fat to cool, when it may be easily removed.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to thank the public for their kindness and sympathy during the sickness and death of my wife, Willie Heaton.

ELIAS HEATON.
